Celebration marks start of work on £44million campus for 2,645 children

SCHOOL FIT FOR FUTURE

By Michael Cox

waltham@yellowad.co.uk

A CEREMONY has taken place to celebrate the topping out of a £44million free school development in Barking.

The Portakabin Group is constructing the three-school Riverside Campus for Barking and Dagenham Council, which will accommodate 2,645 children up to the age of 19, integrating provision for nursery, primary, special needs, secondary, and sixth form pupils.

It will be operated by the multi-academy trust Partnership Learning.

Topping out is a tradition in the construction industry to bestow good luck on a building when a structure reaches its advanced stages.

Portakabin has craned the last of 387 modules into position on the Riverside site.

To mark the milestone, a steel beam that will later be lifted and secured into the roof of the atrium was signed by schoolchildren, construction workers and dignitaries from Portakabin and the council.

Cllr Evelyn Carpenter, cabinet member for educational attainment and school improvement, said: "New school places in areas where our youth population is growing is good news for the local community and the borough as a whole.

"I have been very impressed with the speed with which the project has progressed using an off-site solution, and in barely seven months we have gone from ground-breaking at the campus to seeing the last modules craned into place.

"Young people will now benefit from an aspirational learning environment and inspirational teaching to ensure they are well educated and realise their dreams."

Simon Ambler, director of Portakabin, said: "We are absolutely delighted with the progress since the ground breaking in December, which is a credit to everyone involved. This campus will provide an outstanding environment for children to flourish and enjoy their learning activities for many generations to come."

The primary and special educational needs schools are on target to be completed in September.

Win a family fun picnic hamper

Worth

PACK up your sandwiches, dig out your hamper and air that blanket, summer is nearly here.

The children are eager to be outside all day long so what better way to make the most of the glorious weather than a fun family picnic?

Summer and family time go hand-in-hand and picnics are a great way for families to connect, eat some delicious food and play fun games.

The season is all about fresh produce and colourful foods, so how can we ensure we pack a nutritious and delicious menu into our picnic baskets?

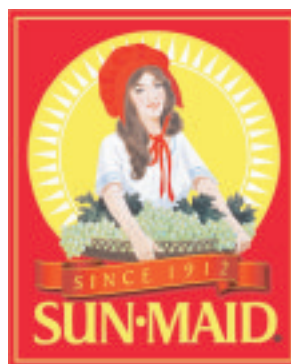

Sun-Maid raisins are grown in the sunshine state of California and are 100 per cent natural.

Whether they are eaten straight out of the box or tossed up in a salad, with Sun-Maid, you get quality, taste, convenience and real fruit goodness with every bite.

For more information and tasty recipes, visit www.sunmaid.co.uk or follow them on their new UK Facebook and Twitter pages.

Sun-Maid wants to kick-start your summer by giving you the chance to win a family fun picnic hamper worth £60.

Filled with picnic essentials, family games and of course, some Sun-Maid raisins, the hamper will have everything you need to create long-lasting memories this summer.

To be in with the chance of winning, simply answer the following question:

What percentage of Sun-Maid products are natural?

- A) 25
- B) 50
- C) 100

To enter the competition telephone your answer – A, B or C – to 0901 307 1672 with your name, address, telephone number and email. Alternatively text YASUN (space) followed by A, B or C, and your name, full address and email to 63333.

Calls cost 50p per call plus your phone company's access charge. Calls from mobiles will cost considerably more.

Texts cost 50p plus your standard network rates.

If you do not wish to receive details on any other products or services, please text EXIT at the end of your message. Lines close on Thursday, July 21. Entries received after the closing date will not be counted but may still be charged.

Service Provider: JMedia UK Limited, RH16 3EG. Tel: 020 7720 7130.

T&Cs: The first five entries randomly drawn after the closing date will win the tickets. There is no cash alternative. Editor's decision is final. This show is not affiliated with Dirty Dancing: The Classic Story on Stage currently on tour in the UK and world-wide.

DELIGHT: Saint Francis hospice team celebrate the CQC inspection rating

Inspectors praise care at hospice

A HOSPICE has been rated "outstanding" by the Care Quality Commission (CQC).

The CQC inspection team spent five days at Saint Francis Hospice in April and praised the "outstanding care and support" that the hospice in Havering-atte-Bower provides.

It said that the management, staff and volunteers were "highly motivated and committed" to ensuring people benefited from the best possible care.

Debbie Ivanova, from the CQC, said: "This is an outstanding example of how a hospice should be run."

"Relatives told us staff understood their emotional needs and focused on their wellbeing as well as the wellbeing of their close family."

Tes Smith, hospice director of quality and care, said: "At Saint Francis Hospice we strive for excellence in all that we do and the services we deliver and the fact this has been validated by CQC gives us even more motivation to keep developing and ensuring we reach as many people in need as we can."

Pam Court, chief executive officer, added: "Saint Francis Hospice has a truly amazing, compassionate and committed staff and volunteer workforce of whom we are tremendously proud. I trust our supporters will continue to have every confidence in us to deliver outstanding palliative and end-of-life care to local people now and in the future."

TALENT: Pupils from Gwyn Jones Primary School in Leytonstone with their ukuleles

Musical youth star at festival

HUNDREDS of young people from Waltham Forest took to the stage during a two-day music festival.

The Waltham Forest Music Festival in Walthamstow Assembly Hall on July 5 and 6, celebrated home-grown musical achievement.

Twelve schools took part in two daytime concerts with performances from massed choirs as well as wind, ukulele and recorder groups.

The festival finale on Wednesday evening featured ensembles from the Waltham Forest Music School.

Cllr Grace Williams, cabinet member for children and young people, said: "Well done to all of the talented and hard-working young musicians who made this year's festival such a resounding success."

NEWS IN BRIEF

● A 40-YEAR-OLD man from Waltham Cross was robbed by two men armed with a knife in an alley near the Co-operative Food Store, Upshire Road, Waltham Abbey, at 6.55pm on Thursday, July 7.

His mobile phone was stolen and he suffered cuts to his left arm and hand.

One robber is 6ft, large, mixed race and had a bald head. He is aged between 55 and 60 and wore a red hooded top, white T-shirt and grey jogging bottoms.

The second is slim, aged 20 to 30, mixed race, slim, and 5ft 9in. He wore a red beanie hat and a green fleece top.

Witnesses are asked to contact Loughton CID on 101.

● THE start of work on a £160million housing development in Marlowe Road, Walthamstow, has been delayed until September.

Waltham Forest Council said the authority and developer Countryside remain committed to the investment and delivering new council homes.

But technical details of the development agreement between the council and Countryside have taken longer to agree than anticipated, resulting in the delay.

Residents on the estate will receive letters from the council setting out the situation and what it means for them.

For more details call the property team on 020 8496 3000.

Ilford technician scoops top award

A TECHNICIAN at an Ilford school has won a national award in recognition of her hard work.

Rose Russell, the art and design technician at Ursuline Academy Ilford, won the Technician in STEM (science, technology, engineering and maths) subjects award at the ENTHUSE Celebration Awards 2016, held at global health charity Wellcome's HQ in London.

The ENTHUSE Awards recognise outstanding teaching professionals and the effect they have on their pupils, colleagues and the wider school.

Rose was one of seven teachers and technicians who received awards at this year's ceremony.

She was presented with her award by Neil Carmichael, Conservative MP for Stroud.

She said: "Just being shortlisted was a great honour, then to hear my name announced as a winner was a real surprise.

"I felt truly humbled to be up against some really worthy nominees and in amongst what I consider to be the crème de la crème of STEM."

Rose, as well as the other winners and all those who were nominated, had taken part in science-specific continuing professional development at the National STEM Learning Centre and received bursaries from Project ENTHUSE, which provides funding for teaching staff from state funded schools, academies and colleges in the UK.

Police hunt for moped robbers

Gang of three believed to be behind spate of attacks

THIS is a suspected robber wanted for questioning by detectives in connection with a series of robberies in Dagenham.

Police were called at 11.45am on Friday, July 8, to a car park on Whalebone Lane South following the theft of a handbag.

The bag was reported stolen from a parked car by three suspects on two black mopeds.

Detectives are investigating whether this incident is linked with four other offences committed on the same day.

At 11.45am, a woman was robbed on Valence Avenue, and a short time later unknown suspects attempted to steal property from a woman on Wood Lane.

Shortly after noon, a man was robbed on Linkway, and a second attempted robbery took place 10 minutes later on Crow Lane.

One suspect is male and was wearing a grey long-

sleeved top and grey trousers, with a motorcycle crash helmet that was white with orange/red on the left and dark blue/black on the right.

Another, also male, was wearing a black long-sleeved top and crash helmet.

A third suspected robber was wearing a dark blue hooded top, dark blue jeans, grey Nike trainers with white around the foot just above the sole, a black crash helmet and black gloves.

Anyone with information can contact Barking and Dagenham CID via 101.

Police inquiries continue and no arrests have been made.

Public Notices

EAST LONDON WASTE AUTHORITY

AUDIT OF ACCOUNTS YEAR ENDED

31 MARCH 2016

LOCAL AUDIT & ACCOUNTABILITY ACT 2014
ACCOUNTS AND AUDIT REGULATIONS
(ENGLAND) 2015

NOTICE is hereby given that:

The Statement of Accounts for the year ended 31 March 2016 has been published on the Authority's website. The Statement of Accounts is unaudited and may be subject to change.

The Authority's accounts are subject to external audit by KPMG LLP, 15 Canada Square, Canary Wharf, London E14 5GL (telephone 020 7311 1000- Phillip Johnstone). Members of the public and local government electors have certain rights in the audit process:

1. From 24th June 2016 to 5th August 2016 between 10 a.m. and 4 p.m. Monday to Friday, any person may inspect the accounts of the Authority and certain related documents (comprising books, deeds, contracts, bills, vouchers and receipts) at the address given below. They may also make copies of the accounts and documents, although multiple copies will be charged for and an appointment may be required.
2. From 10 a.m. on 24th June 2016 until 4pm on the 5th August 2016, a local government elector for the area of the Authority or his/her representative may ask the auditor questions about the accounts. Please contact the auditor at the address given above to make arrangements to ask any questions.
3. From 10 a.m. on 24th June 2016 until 4pm on 5th August 2016 a local government elector for the area of the Authority, or his/her representative, may object to the Authority's accounts asking that the auditor issue a report in the public interest or apply for a declaration that an item in the accounts is contrary to law (under section 27 of the Local Audit and Accountability Act 2014). Written notice of a proposed objection and the grounds on which it was made must be sent to the auditor at the address given above and copied to me at the address given below.

Orders are accepted by the Publishers subject to the Standard Conditions agreed between the Newspaper Societies and the Institute of Practitioners in Advertising. Save that:

1. Advertisements are accepted on the conditions that any disclaimer relating to goods are accurate and is not to be construed as the premises of the Trade Descriptions Act 1968, and the Fair Trading Act 1973, and for the purposes of the British Code of Advertising Practice. Advertisements offering credit or free facilities must conform to the Consumer Credit (Advertisements) Regulations 1980.
2. "Classified" Advertisements offering goods or services of a business, unconnected with trade or service, at the discretion of the Publishers, be deemed "Trade Advertisements", and as such, must include their terms of advertisements, a telephone number or an address in addition to those requirements and not as alternatives.
3. To comply with the Business Advertisements (Director) (CET) Trade Advertisements must state it clear that they are selling goods in the course of business either by contract, format, size or place of the advertisement or by including words such as "trade", "dealer", "agent", "wholesaler", "TV etc." in the advertisement.
4. The Publishers accept no liability whatsoever for any loss or damage however caused arising out of or
5. Any person, including or otherwise in the printing or publishing of any advertisement, shall be deemed to publish an advertisement on the day / date or day / date specified by the advertiser or
6. Any delay in forwarding or insertion in forward copies to his members to the Advertiser; 4. The Publishers will not be responsible for any loss or damage to the day / date of day / date specified by the Advertiser but neither days / dates cannot be guaranteed.
7. Where advantage of advertisement is taken for whatever reason the advertisement will be charged to the advertiser full cost. The only full cost will apply to the full-page advertisement, which cannot be paid over after acceptance.
8. The Publishers reserve the right to reject an advertisement or to vary it in any way they deem fit, at any time before publication, whether or not the advertiser has already been accepted for publication.
9. Where every effort is made to reproduce orders in advertisements, mistakes do sometimes occur. Advertisers in their agents should therefore check their advertisements and inform us as soon as possible. Advertisers cannot be responsible for errors or omissions or for any loss or damage, or for any changes, which do not affect the value of the advertisement, and do not qualify for repudiation or alternatives.
10. All advertisements (except classified) and insertions are subject to the provisions of the Advertising Standards Board of Finance (publishers), payable to the advertiser to help finance the self-regulatory control system administered by the Advertising Standards Board.
11. All rates quoted are subject to VAT at the rate currently in force at the time the advertisement is accepted.
12. Should the rate for advertisements be altered the price for remaining months shall be revised accordingly or the advertiser shall have the right to adjust the advertiser's position at the order.
13. The placing of an advertisement order will be deemed an acceptance of these conditions.
14. Account facilities are granted at the discretion of the Company.
15. All accounts must be settled within the terms agreed by the Company and the Customer.
16. Should an advertiser be in breach of the agreed terms, the publisher shall be entitled to levy a 10% surcharge on the value of the order in respect of accounts with arrears of less than 30 days, and any arrears of more than 30 days shall be subject to the advertiser's order.
17. Regular monthly arrears that are in breach of the agreed terms will pay an interest rate of 10% above the current Bank of England base rate for each month that the account is overdue and arrears or commissions that have been allowed will be retained. Should legal action be required the interest will be charged in accordance with the County Court Act 1984.
18. Where an advertiser requests an advertising agent to act on their behalf, the advertiser will remain jointly and severally liable for payment in respect of an advertiser's account, should the advertiser agent fail to pay. For the avoidance of doubt, the agent will be responsible for the advertiser's account, should the advertiser agent fail to pay. For the avoidance of doubt, the agent will be responsible for the advertiser's account, should the advertiser agent fail to pay.
19. All queries must be settled, preferably in writing to the accounts department of the publisher within 7 days of the invoice date.
20. All digital services are provided in partnership with the publisher's hosting services providers. Every effort is made to ensure the continuity of these services, but some occasional or technical outages beyond the publisher's control may occur. The publisher and its associated services shall be under no liability if the production or availability of such services is disrupted or prevented by any cause beyond the control of the publisher.
21. The Publisher may provide reader copies for published advertisements in electronic form only subject to certain criteria. Further information is available on request.
22. The copyright of advertisements produced wholly or partially by the Publishers belongs to the Publishers. Advertiser may not reproduce such advertisements without the Publisher's consent.

NatWest T20 Blast South Group
Hampshire v Essex Eagles
Brian Jeeves reporting
Essex 153/6 (20 overs)
Hampshire 150/7 (20 overs)
Essex won by three runs

ESSEX Eagles extended their unbeaten NatWest T20 Blast run to four matches by grabbing a dramatic victory over Hampshire at the Rose Bowl.

Ashir Zaidi top scored for Essex, reaching 47 before he was run out by Michael Carberry.

Tom Westley's 33 proved to be the only other notable knock from the visitors as those around them fell relatively cheaply.

Essex posted a modest 153/6 from their 20 overs. Liam Dawson, 2/19, and Gareth Andrew, 2/35, the pick of an economical Hampshire attack.

In response, Carberry reached 24 before he was caught by Westley, New Zealander Matthew Quinn benefiting with the ball.

Zaidi took the wickets of both Dawson and Sean Ervine, while Tom Alsop fell, caught and bowled by Dan Lawrence, without troubling the scoreboard.

James Vince carried the fight for the hosts and hit 62 before he was bowled by Graham Napier.

But the Hampshire order failed to capitalise on the platform Vince had given them.

Zaidi's excellent figures of 2/16 along with Quinn's 2/36 helped Essex to a fourth successive victory in the shortest form of the game, making qualification for the quarter-final stages now a real possibility.

They sit in third place in the South Group table, five points behind the leading pair of Glamorgan and Gloucestershire, with five wins from their nine matches.

Essex now turn their attentions to the Specsavers County Championship Division Two title race, when they travel to Cheltenham to take on Gloucestershire on Wednesday, July 13-16 (11am).

Hampshire: Michael Carberry, Tom Alsop, James Vince*, Liam Dawson, Sean Ervine, Shahid Afridi, Lewis McManus+, Gareth Andrew, Brad Wheal, Tino Best, Brad Taylor.

O's made to work in Wealdstone warm-up

Football

Wealdstone 1 Leyton Orient 2
Pre-season friendly
By Rowland Lyons at Grosvenor Place

ANDY HESSENTHALER'S new charges continued their warm-up campaign at their National League South hosts on Tuesday night.

But the east Londoners were made to work, especially after Eddie Oshodi had fired the Stones into a shock second minute lead.

Having blazed a great chance over, after Jordan Bowery had forced Jonathan North into a fine save, Jay Simpson found his range on 26 minutes and levelled from Gavin Massey's smart cut back.

Orient went ahead six minutes later when a fine Liam Kelly through ball found the impressive wide man Sandro Semedo who cut in and netted with an angled drive.

In what was a contrasting and ultimately disappointing second period for the sizeable Orient travelling contingent, with Henthenthaler fielding an almost completely different 11, Charlie Grainger was the busier

BACK AFTER INJURY: Dean Cox of the two keepers, and did especially well to deny the overlapping Oshodi.

The O's rarely threatened with only fit-again Dean Cox – back after nearly 10 months out – and Armand Gnanouillet, going close.

With three minutes remaining, Grainger capped a fine display, with a superb point-blank save to foil Sahar Kabbe and deny the Stones a deserved equaliser.

Henthenthaler admitted: "I think you could highlight from tonight that we still have quite a lot of work to do.

"We've still got a few weeks to the start of the season and after using two different teams in both halves we know we need to get better.

"These friendly games are never easy and we know we are going to be tested. And, credit to Wealdstone. They've got some experienced lads and a good outfit and these games won't get any easier with Dover away on Saturday [kick-off 3pm].

"But I'm a little bit disappointed in the performance. But for me it's all about being ready for the new season. We need to make sure for the Cheltenham game that we are ready and organised but over the 90 minutes tonight, it was a good workout for us."

He added: "In the first-half we created some decent opportunities – with the likes of Simpson and Massey – but we were a little sloppy for their goal."

Massey, one of eight summer signings, added: "It's always good to start with a win. I think we could have played better but a win's a win and gives confidence that you want to build into yourself."

The former Colchester winger, who was last season's player-of-the-year at the relegated club, revealed: "I did have some interest from other clubs, but when Orient came 'sniffing', I thought it was the perfect move. I needed a change from Colchester and see this club is going in the right direction. At the end of the day I got relegated, so I would have been a League Two player had I stayed at Colchester, anyway. Hopefully, this division won't be a lot different and that I can score and set up some more goals but the Colchester games will stick out."

Wealdstone: Jonathan North, Eddie Oshodi, Tom Hamblin, Elliott Godfrey (Alfie Cain 69), Josh Urquhart, Jonny Wright (Sergiu Maximov 66), Wes Parker (captain), David Hunt (Claudio Hoban 67), Ricky Wellard, Danny Green (Josh Hutchinson 64), Elliott Benyon (Sahar Kabba 64).

Leyton Orient (first-half): Alex Cisak, Sean Clohessy, Aron Pollak, Tom Parkes, Callum Kennedy, Gavin Massey, Liam Kelly, Robbie Weir, Sandro Semedo, Jordan Bowery, Hay Simpson.

Second-half: Charlie Grainger, Nicky Hunt, Yvan Echot, Tom Parkes (Michael Clark 62), Josh Doherty, Dean Cox, Sammy Moore, Nigel Atangana, Josh Koroma, Ollie Palmer, Armand Gnanouillet.

Attendance: 425.

Hammers ace selected for Argentine Olympic squad

Football

WEST Ham United's exciting attacking midfielder Manuel Lanzini has been called up by Argentina for next month's Olympic Games in Rio.

Lanzini enjoyed a terrific first season in the Premier League with the Hammers, becoming a fans' favourite following a series of stirring displays.

Speaking to West Ham TV, the 23-year-old said: "I am very happy for this, representing my national team is always special.

"It's a big tournament and is being held in South America, which is good for us and important for Argentina."

The former River Plate player added: "For Argentina, going to the Olympics to take the gold is something we always try to achieve.

"It is very important for the country and we will do all we can to take the gold again.

"Big players have played for Argentina in the Olympic Games before, and we have some big players in this team too. It's very important for all of us.

"I know all of our players very well and we will have a strong chance to do well.

"I have enjoyed our tour in America very much, and I like this country, so I will be ready for these Olympics."

Non-league round-up

Clubs prepare for FA Cup prelims

By Brian Jeeves

ALTHOUGH the Emirates FA Cup final is 10 months away, many of the region's non-league clubs are preparing for the competition's extra preliminary round as the road to Wembley gets under way.

Essex Senior League outfit Ilford appear to be staging the pick of the local ties, meeting fellow ESL club Burnham Ramblers at the Cricklefield Stadium on August 6 (3pm).

Several other notable fixtures see London Bari face Clapton as tenants face their landlords at the Old Spotted Dog ground.

Redbridge face a local derby with Waltham Forest, while there is another all-ESL tie at Crofters End where Sawbridgeworth Town take on Southend Manor.

The local FA Cup ties in full are as follows: Redbridge v Waltham Forest, Enfield 1893 v Tower Hamlets, FC Clacton v Eton Manor, Sporting Bengal United v Ipswich Wanderers, Wivenhoe Town v Hullbridge Sports, Barkingside v Hadleigh United, Whittton United v Basildon United, London Bari v Clapton, Barking v Takeley, Sawbridgeworth Town v Southend Manor, Stanway Rovers v FC Romania and Ilford v Burnham Ramblers.

National League South outfit Chelmsford City have announced the signings of Corby Moore and Robbie Willmott.

Midfielder Moore links up with the Clarets after spending the second half of last season under new City manager Rod Stringer at Bishop's Stortford.

Prior to that the 22-year-old enjoyed spells with Southampton, Forest Green Rovers as well as American club Indy Eleven.

Meanwhile, Willmott arrives at the Melbourne Stadium after being released by Ebbsfleet United at the end of the last campaign.
